Dear web visitors:

On behalf of Malintzin Society it is an honor to welcome you to share our project.

All that exists is related to an other; we can say, therefore, that we are our relationships. This web platform is meant to be a space where we can relate to people from all over the world with empathy and cultural understanding.

It is important for every human being to search for meaning in everyday life, to generate consciousness of symbolic life. As Carl G. Jung said: “The unconscious wants to flow into consciousness in order to reach the light.” ...
